Argentines Urge Gitmo for Exiles

BUENOS AIRES — The United States should turn over the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay in Cuba to Cuban Exiles, the Argentine Committee for Self-Determination of Free People says.

The committee's spokesman, Dr. Jorge W. Perkins, claimed recent sanctions voted against Cuba by the Organization of American States would mean nothing unless followed by an act supporting Cuban exiles fighting Premier Fidel Castro. He said such an act could be giving the naval base to the exiles.
